

2021 ACR MAMMOGRAPHY ACCREDITATION FEES

TO: Mammography Facilities Undergoing Accreditation with the ACR

FROM: Theresa Branham, BSRS
Director, Breast Imaging Accreditation Programs

SUBJECT: Accreditation Fee Change Notice

With the launch of the new accreditation database, ACredit Plus, the American College of Radiology Mammography Accreditation Program will change its fees for accreditation. The ACR has not had an accreditation fees change since 2016. The change in fees is resultant in the FDA-approved process to treat a unit that performs both Full-Field Digital Mammography (FFDM) and Digital Breast Tomosynthesis (DBT) as a single unit with modules. This will result in a cost and time savings to our accredited sites.

The increases are outlined in the table below:

Cycle	Old Fee	2022 Fee
Initial, Renewal or Facility Reinstatement Application – 1 st unit – one module	$1700	$1700
Initial, Renewal or Facility Reinstatement Application – additional units – one module	$1500	$1500
Initial, Renewal or Facility Reinstatement Application – 1 st unit – two modules (currently, this would be two separate units)	$3200	$2700
Initial or Renewal or Facility Reinstatement Application – additional units – two modules (currently, this would be two additional units, for example, units 2 and 3)	$3000	$2500
REPEAT after 1 st deficiency – each unit	$825	$825
Unit Reinstatement after Deficiency on Repeat - single unit FAIL in a multiple unit accredited facility with active units or for new unit with 2 nd deficiency with more than 1 year on ACR accreditation – one module	$1000	$1000
Unit Reinstatement after Deficiency on Repeat - single unit FAIL in a multiple unit accredited facility with active units or for new unit with 2 nd deficiency with more than 1 year on ACR accreditation – two modules	N/A	$2000
Additional (or new) unit at fully accredited site, mid cycle (includes moved units) – one module	$1000	$1000
Additional (or new) unit at fully accredited site, mid cycle (includes moved units) – two modules	N/A	$2000

Thank you.
