

Mammography Saves Lives™

... one of them may be yours

Get the Facts

- 40 is the age at which women should start getting annual mammograms
- 37% reduction in breast cancer deaths since mammography screening became widespread in 1990
- 1 in 6 breast cancers occur in women ages 40–49
- 3 of 4 women diagnosed with breast cancer have no family history of the disease

Visit the website today to:

- View videos of physicians dispelling myths and providing the facts about breast cancer screening
- Find an accredited mammography facility near you www.MammographySavesLives.org